DID YOU HEAR YODELLING?

You were not mistaken! The wonderful Swiss Yodellers returned to Greenwich Sailing Club on Saturday 28 November and gave a great performance to about 120 supporters of the Isabelle Heim Fund. In spite of high temperatures that evening, those present enjoyed another of those great community gatherings for which Greenwich is renowned. Thanks to hard working volunteers and the generosity of many, this event raised almost $7,000 to help support Isabelle. Isabelle is severely disabled with cerebral palsy and the Greenwich community has raised funds to assist with her care for many years.

DO YOU ENJOY WALKING?

The Greenwich Community Association distributes newsletters to most Greenwich residents before our general meetings. We are fortunate to have a great team of volunteer letter-boxers but a few vacancies have come up! If you enjoy a walk and are happy to help us to letter-box a couple of streets six times a year please call Merri Southwood on 0412 361331

WAYSIDE CHAPEL CHRISTMAS APPEAL

Can you donate foodstuffs to the Wayside Chapel Christmas Appeal? Donations can be left at IGA Greenwich.

HOLIDAY SECURITY

Going on holiday? Just a reminder to lock up your house and let someone have contact details in case there are some unusual comings and goings near your property.

NOTICE OF SPECIAL RESOLUTION

For many years the Greenwich Community Association has maintained a public liability insurance policy for a limit of $5million. The cost of maintaining this insurance is significant relative to our annual subscription income.

The Associations Incorporation Act no longer requires associations such as ours to maintain public liability insurance.

A special resolution will be put to the next general meeting to remove from our Rules the requirement to maintain public liability insurance and to insert a provision giving the Executive discretion as to whether such cover is required.

Notices of the proposed form of resolution will be displayed in mid-January.
